Welcome

Message from the City Manager

It is my pleasure to introduce the Sherwood Public Library Strategic Plan for 2017-2019. Our Library is an important hub for our community, providing free and equitable access to learning, events and activities for all ages. Together with the annual goals developed by the Sherwood City Council each year, this document will provide a clear path for staff to focus on community-driven goals that are responsive, visionary, and fiscally responsible. Thank you to the library advisory board, staff, volunteers, and community members who developed this plan that will help move our library forward in the coming years.

– Joseph Gall

This is an exciting time at Sherwood Public Library to be working with our first Strategic Plan to guide the next three years of library services. I am ever appreciative of the team of dedicated Library Advisory Board members, community representatives and library staff who contributed to this plan through a rewarding and inclusive process. Our Community & Demographics

Sherwood is a rapidly growing city in southern Washington County, Oregon. Sherwood is known for its livability and was recently ranked by Money Magazine as 6th Best Place to Live in 2015. Situated along Highway 99W in the southeast corner of Washington County, adjacent to Yamhill and Clackamas Counties, it is considered the gateway to wine country. The area has strong agricultural roots and was originally built up around the railroad and early industry with brick-making, a tannery, and canning industry. Today Sherwood is home to approximately 19,000 people, has become a bedroom community to the Portland Metro area, and is known for its strong schools, safety, beautiful parks, historic downtown and vibrant community events such as the Robin Hood Festival and Music in the Park.

Sherwood is known to be very family-friendly, with approximately half of all households including children, compared to 30% in Oregon. Sherwood demographics have shifted towards affluence with the growing size of the community; in 2015, the median income for city residents was $80,107, though there are small pockets of need for housing assistance, meals, and other social services. Whereas Washington County is the most diverse County in Oregon, Sherwood is 92.2% White, 7.7% Hispanic/Latino, 3.8% of two or more races, 3.7% Asian, 0.7% American Indian and 0.7% Hawaiian/Pacific Islander. Sherwood School District reports nearly 19% of students are of a minority and 14% qualify for free and reduced lunch. Local library patrons borrowed materials in 23 different languages in 2016. Nearly 96% of residents have a high school degree and 44% have a bachelor’s degree or higher, compared to 90% and 31%, respectively, in Oregon.

Our Library

Sherwood Public Library is the southern-most library in Washington County, where we serve a population of over 22,000 people in the greater Sherwood area. Over 11,000 community members have an active library card and each month we see over 20,000 visits to the library. Total annual circulation of library materials exceeds 365,000. Last year we provided 625 programs with 25,000 participants—15,000 of those in youth programs. We also provided 14,600 public internet sessions and answered 4,500 reference questions. The total value of library services provided last year is estimated at $8,360,000—a nearly 8-fold return on the annual budget.

As a member library of Washington County Cooperative Library Services (WCCLS), Sherwood Public Library provides access to over 1.7 million items from throughout the county. The local collection of nearly 50,000 items offers books, Blu-Rays, DVDs, CDs, graphic novels, magazines, newspapers, audio books, board games and more—in addition to e-books, downloadable audiobooks, and electronic learning resources. Our facility is 14,400 square feet, where we provide free wireless internet access through Sherwood Broadband, 13 public internet stations, a fireplace reading room and spaces to study, play and visit.

Today the library employs the full-time equivalent of 11.2 staff. A strong volunteer base of over 40 community members assisted with 2,700 hours of library tasks last year. Last year we partnered with over 24 local agencies and received funds and in-kind services from 30 donors to expand our offerings and services. Sherwood Public Library is a department of the Community Services Division within the City of Sherwood. The Library Advisory Board is made up of 9 voting members, including a rural representative and a high-school representative, in addition to a City Council Liaison.
Library History

The Library began as a dedicated shelf of books in the local drugstore in 1935. The collection was later moved to a rented house and by 1969, the City of Sherwood elected to support the Library and it was moved to the basement of then City Hall in the Morback House. Sherwood Public Library became a founding member of the newly formed WCCLS in 1976. The local Friends of the Library group also formed that year and began fund-raising which, combined with matching Library Services and Construction Act (LSCA) funds, built a 3,000 square foot building in 1986 at 955 N. Sherwood Boulevard. In December 2005, the Sherwood Public Library & City Hall joint-use Civic Center was opened in the current location, funded primarily through Urban Renewal funds and sales of city-owned properties.

Core Services

Public Library services are made possible through the coordination of many efforts behind the scenes and in the public eye that are considered part of our core services. The Library Advisory Board, Community Forum members and Library staff agreed the goals above are the focus for growth and improvement at Sherwood Public Library for the next three years, but the Library is not to decrease core services, including those services which have been built up recently to meet community needs. These core services include:

- Early learning services (e.g. storytimes and caregiver workshops)
- Programming for school-aged children
- Reference services
- Internet and computer access
- Quality cataloging and selection of library materials

In addition, we will maintain a high-priority on community outreach and engagement, though many of the opportunities are outside of our control.
