Letter from the Manager

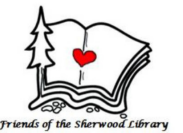

Out and About with the Library this Summer

Summer Reading challenges and events continue all summer long. Pick out your free book through August 31 in the library. The Mission of Sherwood Public Library is to inspire discovery, enrich lives and build community through equitable access to life-long learning. We see that happen with summer reading, especially. Join us to connect with your community and learn about cultures, science, music, and more. Celebrate reading and learning with events throughout the summer and free books for youth, teens, and adults.

See you at the library!

A BIG Thank You to all our Sponsors!

For All Ages

Miniature Castle Making Contest

Through July 9

[In-Person] In time for the yearly Sherwood Robin Hood Festival, show off your creativity in Sherwood Public Library's 4th annual Miniature Castle Making Contest! Submit a homemade castle 9x9x9 inches or smaller between June 25 and July 9, and it may be displayed at the library or even win an award. More rules and information at sherwoodoregon.gov/library.

Art Walk

Thursday, July 13, 5:00 p.m.

[In-Person] The library is one stop at the Art Walk event. Visit the library and can enjoy peaceful landscapes and scenes from nature created by local artist, D. K. Boljat. Don't forget to get your stamp to enter the prize drawing at the Sherwood Center for the Arts.

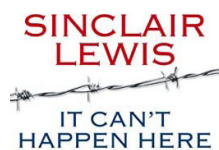

For Adults

Adult Summer Reading

Through August 31

Pick up a free book at the library (while supplies last), read any book or audiobook you'd like, submit book reviews online or at the library (through August 31). Each book review enters you into weekly and grand prize drawings!

Adult Book Discussion

Wednesday, July 12, 6:00 p.m.

[In-Person] Read. Be inspired. Discuss. We are discussing It Can't Happen Here by Sinclair Lewis -- a cautionary tale about the fragility of democracy focusing on a newspaper editor fighting to destroy a fascist dictatorship. The first ten to register receive a free copy of the book.*
