

I Spy @ Sherwood Public Library

VIRGINIA HITE MEMORIAL PAINTING

Look up to see the real painting.

1. Arrow & Robin Hood cap

A tribute to the Robin Hood Festival established in 1954 and archery tournament started in 1956 against Nottingham, England.

2. Carnegie Library

The framed art in tribute to the thousands of public libraries established in the United States.

3. White church

First Catholic church built in Sherwood in 1953. Still stands on Oregon Street.

4. Woody Hite Big Band

Virginia's husband, Don, and his brother Woody, were raised in Sherwood and played venues in Oregon and on the radio.

5. Books

Books populate the entire painting, representing Virginia's passion for reading and support for Sherwood Public Library and its mission.

Don Dahlke

Born 1950 in San Francisco, California
Raised in Sherwood, Oregon

In Memory of a Spirited Soul, 2021
oil paint on gessoed linen canvas

Collection of the City of Sherwood
Donated by Friends of Sherwood Public Library