Six Word Story Contest is Back

Enter the Library's 13th annual Six Word Story Contest, March 1 through 31, and you could win a prize and fame! There's a literary legend that Ernest Hemingway, while having dinner with fellow writers of the famous Algonquin Round Table in New York City, bet he could write a story in just six words. They bet not. He grabbed a pen and a napkin and wrote: "For Sale: baby shoes, never worn." They paid up and Hemingway called it his best work. Now it's your turn! A special team of judges will review stories. Winners will be announced during National Library Week, April 19-25.

This contest is for all ages, and each person can submit two stories. Named for famous short story writers, our three prizes are: 1st prize "The Ernest Hemingway", 2nd prize "The Sandra Cisneros", and 3rd prize "The James Baldwin". Full rules in the library and at sherwoodoregon.gov/library.

Spring Break Fun!

Join us for special events during Spring Break, geared towards kids and families. Enjoy a play-based program with P.A.W. Prints on Tuesday, March 24, from 10-11 AM. OMSI is stopping by the library with an Indoor Planetarium on Saturday, March 28, at 10 AM and 1 PM. There are two sessions. Registration is required to attend.
