SHERWOOD PUBLIC LIBRARY

NEWSLETTER

November 2026

Support Our Community and Save Money at the Library

Help local families have gifts for their children this holiday season. Sherwood Public Library is a drop-off site for Sherwood School District's SHARE Center gift drive. Drop off new, unwrapped gifts November 7-25. Families can make appointments for holiday shopping at the SHARE Center. Any remaining gifts will go to Sherwood Elks for Christmas baskets.

Looking to save money? The Friends of the Sherwood Library have an ongoing sale of used household items, clothing, and books with prices typically in the $0.25 to $2 range. Holiday items go quickly.

The ultimate money-savings is by borrowing books, movies, magazines, games, tools, and gadgets from the library. Use the Adventure Pass to visit local destinations, read e-books, stream movies, download digital magazines and newspapers, and more—a value in the hundreds of dollars each month, all for free. Sign-up for a library card to get started.

We also invite you to support the library with year-end giving. Donations are tax-deductible.

- Support Friends of the Sherwood Public Library (sherwoodfol.org), a Non-Profit 501c3 corporation, with donations of funds or used books and media.
- Donate to Sherwood Library Foundation (SHELF) (sherwoodlibraryfoundation.com), a private, Non-Profit 501c3 corporation, the group behind the library's new meeting pod.
